In addition to winning multiple awards for his achievements, including three James Beard awards, he enjoys the stature of a media personality, with very frequent appearances across print, radio and television, and a significant social media following. Chef Daniel was raised on his family's farm in Lyon. At age 17, he became a finalist for Best Culinary Apprentice in France, and by 19, Chef Daniel was working as a chef in the finest restaurants in Copenhagen. Upon moving to the U.S. in 1982, he served as the private chef to the Ambassador of the European Commission in Washington, D.C. Chef Daniel later moved to New York City to serve as head chef of the Polo Lounge and then the Hotel Plaza Athénée. He also served as executive chef at Le Cirque, which became one of the most highly rated restaurants in the country during his tenure.
